MORNING EDITION.

Interesting Letter from the Front. from a distinguished goatleman at the front :

At MARIETTA, 7 29th June Z P. W. J.

I wrote you last night some herried lines touching the affair of the 27th inst. I believe I stated

At General Hardoe's Headquarters this morning the official lists show but about one hundred lost in the satire corps. A very marvellous result in on by ambitious generals and an unscrupulous general view of the fisceness and duration of the asmult. ernment, falling by thousands, day after day, in an The heaviest lesses fell upon those noble fellows the terrible repulse of the six lines of battle-and while the surviving Federals of the assaulting party while the surviving Federals of the assaulting party were grounding under cover of the hill which slopes down from that part of Cheatham's front—the ground being strewn with Federal dead and wounground being strewn with Federal dead and wounded-one who was badly mutilated cried out to our boys in great agony, "For God's sake boys, bring vouchers are outstanding.

Their vision as it was from ours when by one tell boys in great agony. Their vision as it was from ours when by one tell boys in great agony. The world so to wan if I could.

Third: By the Abolition and Confiscation Acts, act of secession we tore the deceifful trellis of imbut I am disabled—in God's name bring me a drink of water."

A noble youth of our State, pitying the miserable wretch, mounted the breastworks and shouted to the Federals, who were in full hearing: "I am going to take one of your wounded men a drink of water, don't shoot at me." Whereupon he took the dying Federal the canteen, allowed him to drink, and in retiring was fired at by a dozen yankees, and instantly killed. Our boys witnessed the act, instantly and without orders, fired at the squad before they could conceal thomselves, and it is said killed every one one of them. So much for the retributive justice of God. Gen. Cheatham was telling me this morning that nothing could surpass the dashing gallantry of his men in the late fight.

Gen. Johnston in riding along the lines asked, how is it that so many dead Federals lie so close to your breast-works? He was told that Cheatham had ordered his men to reserve their fire, until the enemy almost touched the muzzles of their guns. "Ah," said old Joe, "I understand it now." The truth is however, as I was told by the soldiers this morning, those who fell so near our works were endeavoring to get in and surrember themselves, but the exigency would not allow of discrimination. Home who did get in said to our boys, "there is a thousand men there wish to come in and surrender if you will let them." It is due to these people, however, to say that, as a general thing, their charge was bold, steady and creditable. The azsalling Regiments were from Ohio, Indiana Illinois

The Good Time Coming.

The present condition of the Northern government is ausphorus for us whose most reliable hope is in the bankruptcy of that people, the disorganization of their society, and the weakening of their power. On every hand we see multiplied evidences of disintegration and anarchy-of social munuit and national and individual rule. Disaster is thickening fast and heavy about their standards, and their financial system is hopeleasly prostrate, while a thousand millions of national currency is turning to ashes and dross in the hands of the millions who have toiled for and are holding it as their A friend has kindly permitted us to print the fol- all.
